NEW YORK STRIKE STILL UNSETTLED

Marked by Great Congestion of Express Traffic and General Disorder.

THE CONFERENCE IS DELAYED

Governor Fort Unable to Attend Yesterday—Leaders Threatened Last Night to Call Out 30,000 Drivers.

New York, Nov. 1.—Whether there will be a general strike of all teamsters in the Metropolitan district, in sympathy with the walk-out of express company employes, rests upon the decision of William H. Ashton, general organizer, and Valentine Hoffman, vice president of the International Brotherhood of Teamsters. Authority to call such a strike at a moment's notice, whenever they deem such a course is necessary, was vested in them by the joint executive council of the Brotherhood at a meeting tonight.

In a statement issued as this meeting adjourned, Mr. Ashton said in part:

"There is one man above all others who can decide whether or not a general strike will be called. That man is Mayor Gaynor. He can keep the strike going indefinitely or end it.

"We will give Mayor Gaynor tomorrow to think it over. There will be no general strike called tomorrow, so far as I can see."

In event a general strike is called, the claim is made by the strike leaders that 30,000 men will be affected and that all traffic in the city will be tied up.

The demands of the strikers for recognition of which they are fighting, were put into written form tonight for the first time and will be presented to the companies tomorrow.

New York, Nov. 1.—No material progress was made today toward settling the strike of express employes, which has been in progress for nearly a week. The strike has resulted in a great congestion of express traffic and also in much disorder, numerous street fights have occurred both in this city and in Jersey City, where the trouble first had its inception.

An attempt was made today to hold a conference between Governor Fort, of New Jersey; Mayor Gaynor, of New York, and Mayor Wittpenn, of Jersey City, and the strike leaders and officials of the express companies, but Governor Fort was unable to come to Jersey City and the attempt was abandoned for the day.

The strike today extended to Newark, where a number of drivers went out, while in this city the wagon employes of several big department stores joined in the movement. The leaders tonight made the threat that unless trouble is speedily adjusted they will call out 30,000 drivers of all classes of vehicles.

There was rioting in many parts of Jersey City and in Manhattan today. For the most party, however, the outbreaks were quickly quelled by the police. Arrests were made in nearly every instance and the arraignment of the prisoners called forth notice to rioters that more severe penalties will be dealt out in the future.

Steps looking toward the restoration of express service throughout the city were taken today by the executive committee of the Merchants' Association, acting on the complaint of members that the strike has caused disorganization and great inconvenience.

The committee urged the police to afford the necessary protection to permit the operation of all express wagons and at the same time addressed a letter to the various companies, asking information as to the status of the strike. "In the hope that with a clear understanding of the situation a speedy solution of the existing difficulties will be found and the needed relief to the commercial community afforded."

CRIMINAL LIBEL CHARGED.

Gen. Otis and Harry Chandler Arrested in Los Angeles.

Los Angeles, Cal., Nov. 1.—General Harrison Gray Otis, editor and Harry Chandler, assistant general manager of the Los Angeles Times, were arrested today for the second time on a warrant charging criminal libel.

The charges grew out of an article to which labor leaders took exceptions.

General Otis and Mr. Chandler were arrested a few weeks ago, but the charge was dismissed on a technical error. The second charge was sworn to by Andrew Gallagher of San Francisco.

As soon as arrested, habeas corpus proceedings were instituted and general Otis and Mr. Chandler were released.

Baltimore, Nov. 1.—Col. James Howard, grand-son of the late General John Eager Howard, of Revolutionary fame, died tonight of pneumonia after a short illness. He was 78 years old. Col. Howard served on the general staff of the Confederate army during the Civil War.

PARKER IS ACTIVE IN N. Y. CAMPAIGN

Former Presidential Candidate Attracting Great Interest in the Fight.

FLAYS COL. ROOSEVELT AGAIN

Plattsburg, N. Y., Nov. 1.—Judge Alton B. Parker, the Democratic candidate for President in 1904, spoke here tonight for the Democratic State nominees. Five special trains brought voters from all parts of the county to hear him.

Judge Parker called attention to Col. Roosevelt's discovery of an alleged alliance between Mr. Dix and Wall Street, and said that the only evidence the colonel pretended to adduce was a circular asking for funds, issued by the chairman of the Finance Committee of Tammany Hall.

"I hold that circular in my hand," he said, "and also similar circulars issued by the Republican Committee and the Democratic State Committee.

"I am bound to say they each make it perfectly clear that they want contributions and whether large or small, these will be accepted. That they all insist that contributions will be applied only to the legitimate expenditures of the campaign and what is more to the point that no contributions will be received from corporations.

"I cannot help feeling that the Democratic appeal is more impressive than that of the Republicans. They speak of the people who will be benefitted by this election whereas the dominant Republican thought appears to be of their party and what may or may not happen to it hereafter, if ill befalls it this particular year.

"The Democrats say there are issues in this fight which so transcend in importance all party ties and so affect all who place patriotism above party as to justify and require the giving of an oportunity to all to share in the work and have credit in the triumph. They point to the menace of the new nationalism and the blighting effect it will have upon business and labor, to the extravagance of the party that has for so many years controlled affairs at Washington and Albany.

"The Republicans are evidenly having a hard time in impressing the merits of their cause and their candidate upon the average business man of New York this year.

"And how the Republicans do resent the efforts of the Democrats to gather in a little money for the legitimate expenditures of their campaign. The circular simply says that the Democratic party stands for tranquility and is opposed to the wild doctrines of Roosevelt which would unsettle values and disturb business—facts which the conservative forces of the country fully realize now, after the colonel's three weeks of strenuous campaigning.

"I don't find on the Democratic circular the names of many Wall Street men who would be supposed to have special influence with the Wall Street brethren, but I do find a great volume and variety of Wall Street interests represented among the signers of the Republican circular."

The speaker then mentioned "for instance" the names of Cornelius Vanderbilt, Odgen L. Mills, Otto T. Bannard, B. Aymar Sands, Cornelius N. Bliss, and other men as directors of corporations, financial institutions, etc., as being on the Republican circular.

"I present these facts to you," Judge Parker said in conclusion, "not in criticism of the efforts of these gentlemen to help their party, but solely to show how absurd is the colonel's contention that there can be any connection between Wall Street and any body of men that is diligently seeking to promote the candidacy of Mr. Dix for governor."

BIG STILL WAS CAPTURED.

Revenue Officers Made Raid Near Washington, N. C.—In Operation.

(Special Star Telegram.)

Washington, N. C., Nov. 1.—This morning a 40-gallon still was captured by Deputy Collectors D. C. Downing, of Fayetteville, and J. E. Cameron, of Kinston, within five miles of the town of Aurora, this county. The still was not in operation when found. The entire outfit, nine fermenters and one barrel of molasses, were put out of commission by the officers.

It was found in the edge of the woods. Several jugs of rum were discovered. The officers left Aurora yesterday morning, about 7 o'clock, and did not locate the supposed still until near noon. The officers think that the plant has not been in operation since Friday last. It was with difficulty that the still was located. The officers were advised wrong as to its location. They had almost given up their search when a small path was located. This they followed with the result that their efforts were crowned with success.

GARMENT WORKERS ENGAGE IN RIOTS

Police Routed Threatening Mobs and Arrested Club Women.

THE TROUBLE IN CHICAGO

Chicago, Nov. 1.—Mounted police today charged threatening mobs of striking garment workers and made numerous arrests in three quarters of Chicago, only to be dumbfounded when met by obdurate groups of club women and society leaders who, when taken into custody produced engraved calling cards at police stations in lieu of bail bonds.

It was a new experience for the police, and it plainly confused them. A score of these women champions of the garment workers were taken into custody, but they were immediately released when their identity became known.

One woman was struck by a policeman's club, but her name did not become known as she was hurriedly placed in an automobile and taken home. Most of the club women involved in today's demonstrations were garbed as working girls and the police could not distinguish them from strikers until after arrests were made.

Riotous and spectacular scenes developed down town, on the north side and on the west side. More than 500 men and women engaged in the downtown demonstration, which was broken up by the police after considerable trouble. As they left their headquarters in LaSalle street, the strikers and their sympathizers clanged bells, blew whistles and tooted horns.

The lines of march proceeded into the wholesale quarter near the Chicago river, passing large tailoring establishments whose employes were beckoned to join the strikers. More than 2,000 took part in one of the several incipient riots on the west side. In each instance, women led the strikers and their friends.

"I would take oath that we were doing absolutely nothing beyond the law," said Miss Ellen Starr, a club woman. "The only persons who were violating the law were the policemen, who threatened us roughly and hurt dreadfully with their clubs some of the poor boys we were leading peacefully past the shops."

Miss S. M. Franklin, another volunteer picket, was indignant because of the manner in which she had been treated by the police.

"I know they wouldn't have let me go if I hadn't presented my card," said Miss Franklin. "They seemed to think that I was a particularly dangerous character. Perhaps it would have been a good plan to let them take me to jail and just prove to them how little legal foundation they have to stand on."

Promises from wealthy women to open their homes to destitute striking girls, offers of picket service from women, social and club leaders and pledges of assistance from many other women were received today by Mrs. Raymond Robins, president of the Woman's Trade Union League. Among those to volunteer were Mrs. W. E. Hopkins and Mrs. General Simpson. Deputy Factory Inspector Helen M. Todd, who today addressed a meeting of strikers, volunteered to address a mass meeting of the University of Chicago girls on the south side tomorrow night.

Mrs. Robins will speak on the strike to members of the Chicago Kindergarten institute. In this manner, it is expected to carry the fight of the striking garment workers into every part of the city. Mrs. Robins tonight declared that there would be at least 50 volunteer pickets from women's clubs and other sources outside the working girls actively engaged tomorrow.

Striking girls, club women and leaders in the Women's Trade Union League will meet tomorrow to discuss the strike.

Although several tailoring establishments where strike-breakers are employed were stoned today, only a few persons were injured and there were no fatalities.

MISS KEITH NO BETTER.

Physicians Unable to Determine Her Condition.—Parents There.

(Special Star Telegram.)

Raleigh, N. C., Nov. 1.—Collector of Customs B. F. Keith and Mrs. Keith, of Wilmington, are here at the bedside of their daughter, Miss Adeline, terribly burned Sunday afternoon by an explosion of a vessel of alcohol being used for a chafing dish. The attending physicians say it may be a couple of weeks before real hope for recovery of Miss Keith can be assured. One side and arm and hand were badly burned by flames that wrapped her clothing. A pillow pressed over her mouth and face saved her from serious facial burns and also from inhaling flames, which it was thought at first she had done.

TREASURY DEFICIT IS SHOWN

Washington, Nov. 1.—The Government's finances took a downward twist during the last three days of October and tricked the experts, who had been predicting a surplus for the month, and hoping for an even break at the worst.

Exclusive of the Panama Canal charges, the receipts for the month were $55,266,441, and the expenditures were $58,560,323, which left a deficit in ordinary operations of $3,293,882. Added to that sum the month's cost of the work on the canal and $5,295,083 stands on the wrong side of the ledger. The close of September has shown a total surplus of more than $1,400,000, and it was the first time in the present fiscal year that the government took in more than it paid out.

While the operations of the month bring the total treasury deficit for the fiscal year to more than $21,000,000—and the close of September saw it down to $15,000,000—the situation is not considered unusual.

Panama canal expenditures in October show very nearly $3,000,000, which brings the sum spent this year to more than $13,000,000 as against $11,000,000 at the same time last year. Even though the total deficit does stand at $21,000,000, it was more than $37,000,000 at the same time last year and in the difference treasury officials see reflected the economy policy of all the government's departments. The civil expenditures for October were $2,000,000 greater than in September and interests payments on the public debt took another $3,000,000. It can be seen that the deficit for the month is easily accounted for by expenditures out of the ordinary.

Barring all unusual expenditures, such as for the Panama Canal and payments on the public debt, the month's operations show a deficit of $13,000,000, as against $23,000,000 a year ago. In the face of growing receipts which now total more than $225,000,000 for this year, treasury officials expect to be satisfied as the showing of the month and they expect a gradual improvement from now on. The balance in the general fund touched a little higher than $85,000,000 today as against $90,000,000 on October 1st—but the working balance sticks close to $32,000,000 and as long as it continues to remain anything near that figure there need be no expectation of any new financing, unless some or the expected should happen.

Twenty two new National banks come into existence in October, with total capitaliation of $2,500,000. The majority were small banks, with capital of $50,000 or less. The total National bank circulation is now $724,874,308, an increase of about $4,000,000 over last month.

The total cash in the treasury at the close of the month's business was $1,759,013,952, an increase of about $9,000,000.

RATE HEARING IS CONCLUDED

Railroads and Shippers Presented Evidence to Commerce Commission.—Reasons For Desired Increase.—Arguments Soon.

Chicago, Nov. 1.—Presentation of evidence in the rate hearing before the Interstate Commerce Commission was concluded this afternoon. Arguments on the evidence will be heard by the commission at Washington on December 14th, and after due deliberation, the commission will announce what it is generally considered will be the most important decision ever emaninating from it.

The hearing was instituted at the instance of shippers, who arose in protest when the Western railroads announced that rates on fifty different commodities would be advanced. Opposition to this became general and the railroads agreed not to put the new rates into effect until the Interstate Commerce Commission had conducted a hearing at which the shippers could be heard as to the fairness of the proposed advances.

Hearings were held at Chicago and New York, conducted at first by an examiner, but later owing to the paramount importance of the case, Commissioners Clark and Lane assumed the duty. It took the shippers only a few hours to introduce evidence, but an imposing mass of statistics and testimony went into the record for the railroads. The shippers were represented by a number of attorneys, who confined their efforts largely to attacking the railway evidence, rather than to introducing original testimony for themselves.

Railway men admitted that the advance in rates on the fifty commodities which formed the basis of the hearing was merely an entering wedge, the ultimate purpose being to advance rates all along the line. According to the shippers the final effect of this policy would be to place a tax of $400,000,000 on the consumer.

In a general way the argument presented by the railroads was that increased rates were necessary for the following reasons:

Increased wages to employes. Increased cost of maintenance and operation. Public demand for increased efficiency and expansion of transportation facilities.

The position taken by the shippers was that the railroads at present are receiving a generous return on their actual investment, and among other things sought to show of cross examination that the low rate of earning shown in the statistics presented was due more to over capitalization than to low rates.

During the examination today of Stanley H. Jonnson, assistant freight traffic manager of the Rock Island road, Commissioner Lane asked some pointed questions.

"I have found in my experience," he said, 'that railroads find very little difficulty in raising rates without much justification, and at any time that they may see fit. If there were no restraint placed on the railroads could not the roads advance the rates without end?

"Of course, if the railroad were utterly indifferent to public opinion and were not a body of fair minded men; the rates might be raised endlessly, but this would not be done, as the roads only want a fair profit," replied Mr. Johnson.

"Is it not a fact," asked Commissioner Lane, "that deep down in the mind of the traffic manager he knows that even the present rate is too high?"

This brought a laugh from the crowd, during which the witness replied in the negative.

Mr. Johnson admitted that no general advances in rates were made by the railroads without agreement with their competitors.

"If they did," he added, "it would mean going out of business."

ROOSEVELT TALKS ON HIGH PRICES

Blames the Trusts For Increased Cost of Living in Campaign Speech.

ENDS LAST SPEAKING TOUR

Touched on the Question in Several Speeches Yesterday.—Urges Candidacy of Stimson.—Still Warm in the State.

Buffalo, N. Y., November 1.—The Republican party is not responsible for the high cost of living, Theodore Roosevelt asserts, in a campaign speech here tonight. The cause of high prices in the main were international. If the people of New York, he said, wished to have the State administration do what it could to change conditions, which made prices high, they should elect the Republican ticket.

Colonel Roosevelt declared that in some instances trusts have forced up prices and he pointed to the record of Henry L. Stimson, Republican candidate for governor, as a prosecutor of corporations, which had violated the law as proof that if elected he would do all the governor of the State could do to prevent artificial inflation of values.

Colonel Roosevelt's declaration on this subject was made first at Niagara Falls, this afternoon, and at Buffalo tonight, at the close of his last speaking tour over the State of the present campaign. He spoke today at Albion, Lockport, Niagara Falls and Buffalo. More enthusiasm was shown during his tour today than on almost any other day of his campaign.

The colonel spoke twice here tonight and started for New York from whence he is to depart for Iowa three hours after his arrival there in the morning. In his speech here tonight Colonel Roosevelt said in part:

"Real suffering has unquestionably been caused by the fact that prices have gone up that the cost of living has increased. A demagogue in Harry Stimson's place would have promised that impossible results would follow his success, and our opponents play the demagogue part, for they say we are to blame for high prices and that if they are put in power, prices will be made low. They know that what they promise they cannot perform.

"As Mr. Stimson pointed out the other night there has been a world wide movement toward higher prices It is not in its essence a movement due to various causes, some of which undoubtedly will be changed by time. It is not in its essence a movement that affects only this country. It affects other countries just as it affects ours. Nevertheless there are one or two artificial causes that in given cases tend to make prices improperly high, in ways that it is possible that we can cure."

Colonel Roosevelt spoke of Mr. Stimson's prosecution of the trusts while he was United States district attorney in New York and said that as a result "every big financial corporation of the type that we speak of as a trust is now doing all it can to back up Mr. Dix and to oppose Mr. Stimson."

"It was not until I became President, that the first really serious effort was made to enforce the anti-trust law. We fought suit after suit to successful conclusion and we made both the interstate commerce law and the anti-trust law realities and not shams.

"Who have been the people who attacked me most violently? The plain people or the men who represent the trusts? It is the representatives of the great corporations, their representatives in the press, their reprsentatives in public life, their representatives in private life, the big corporations' lawyers and Harry Stimson is naturally feared by the great combinations which are either doing an illegal business or which are so close up to the edge of an illegal business that they are always afraid that they will be hauled up for stepping over the line, and by the corporations which, if not doing anything illegal, nevertheless, are enjoying special privileges which ought to be made illegal.

"Stimson does not tell you that if elected he can put a stop to the high cost of living; he cannot and no one else can. But he does say that on certain big necessities, by carrying out the course of action that he has consistently carried out, and present life a certain improvement can here and there be made, as regards certain commodities controlled by great trusts."

DEMOCRATS RALLY TO HEAR SIMMONS

SPEAKING IN COURT HOUSE

Denunciation of Republican Leadership and Call to Higher Citizenship—Young Men's Democratic Club Organized.

A splendid gathering of the sturdy citizenship of New Hanover, which completely filled the Court House last night in this city, for more than two hours listened with close attention and marked enthusiasm to a particularly strong discussion of the issues of the present political campaign by the Hon. F. M. Simmons, Senior United States Senator from North Carolina. Following the speaking a Young Men's Democratic Club of something like 50 members was organized and plans were laid by the membership for effective work between now and the day of election next Tuesday.

Senator Simmons is always heard with rare pleasure by a New Hanover audience. His effective work in Congress and as a leader of his party during the dark days of the second reconstruction which delivered Wilmington from the thralldom of Republicanism in 1898 are events of so recent history as to be still fresh in the minds of the people hereabouts. Last night he was doubly welcomed from the fact that his was the first big Democratic speech of the campaign and the voters here were anxious to get at first hand a line on some of the issues which have been agitating the State and Nation the past two months in one of the most heated political campaigns of recent years. Mr. Simmons arrived yesterday evening and is being entertained while in the city at the hospitable home of ex-Mayor and Mrs. Addison G. Ricaud, No. 212 Orange street.

The speaking last night was called promptly to order at 8:15 o'clock, Mr. Simmons having been greeted with a salvo of applause as he entered the court room with his host and other prominent party leaders in the city. The meeting was called to order by County Chairman Bellamy, who spoke of the rare pleasure that awaited the audience in the appearance of the distinguished visitor and emphasized the importance of action on the part of the Democrats at the close of this important campaign.

Mr. Simmons was presented to the audience by ex-Mayor Ricaud, who said that the distinguished guest needed no introduction to a Wilmington audience; referred to his leadership of the party in '98 and expressed pleasure in having him again in Wilmington.

The Senator expressed his appreciation of the kind words of the gentlemen who had preceded him and the people of Wilmington for the splendid greeting which they had given him. Without wasting time on preliminaries Mr. Simmons plunged into a discussion of the issues, saying that there were first three special, besides a multitude of general dangers that would accompany the ascendancy of Republicanism in North Carolina. There was first the special tax bonds, voted by a Republican Legislature in 1869 amounting principal and interest, to over $30,000,000, or one-fifteenth of the taxable values of the State and upon which the holders are now demanding payment. He didn't think the State should or would pay these bonds, which have been repudiated as fraudulent, but he pointed out the dangers of electing a Republican Legislature, inasmuch as these bonds were voted by Republicans and greedy cormorants were exhausting time and money to enforce their payment. The danger was greatly accentuated by the ascendancy of Marion Butler to the supreme and undisputed control of the Republican party in the State. Although Butler had said that the class of bonds upon which he had sued were different and he had been going up and down the State trying to differentiate, he had lately been exposed by the signed advertisement in the New York papers, calling for the holders of these bonds to pool them with his syndicate which had a plan for enforcing their collection. He denounced Butler for having sued the State in the South Dakota bond case while holding a commission as Senator from this State and declared that if all things had been equal, after that act of infamy, he would have shared the fate of Burton and Mitchell, of Ohio, who had paid the penalty in stripes for a similar perfidy. Referring to the circular seeking to get in possession of these bonds upon which to sue, Mr. Simmons said it was significant that Butler's name appeared last on the list, indicating that it was he who had concocted the whole scheme and drafted the circular, placing his own name last by courtesy to the other signers as is customary with lawyers when they have associated counsel.

In the second place the ascendancy

FOUR MORE DAYS CONTEST IS OVER

Now the Time For All Contestants to take Winning Strides in Great Popularity Contest-Final Count.

Just four more days. That sometimes seems a long time to some, but to those who have not devoted enough time to the Star's great contest to see all of their friends, four days seems very short as now there may be some obstacle to come up and prevent a contestant from seeing all of his or her friends, and just by missing one single subscription, owing to lack of time, may cause them to lose the premium which could have been secured by just a little more effort.

If any one has promised a subscription to a friend who is a contestant in the race it is not well to wait until you are called upon for the same by the contestant, but send it in to the contest department at once, as it will never count for more than it does right now, and the fact of your favorite receiving a voluntary subscription may encourage her to such an extent that she will start to work with renewed effort and such a determination to win that her efforts will carry her to the goal of her ambition, which she may have been striving for during the past eight weeks, and contestants should use every endeavor to bring in all of their promises. Remember how many have promised you a subscription, and have not yet fulfilled the promise.

Gather them up for you are on the last lap of the great Popularity Contest, and those ahead of the race at this time are sure of staying there, while those that are not ahead are also sure of getting there before the starting post is reached.

It has been exciting almost from the start but now is the time when people begin to hold their br ath and wait in speechless expectancy for the closing time which will be at 7 o'clock sharp on Monday night.

The contest will positively close on Monday night at 7 o'clock, and all votes that are not in the balotbox at that hour cannot be counted.

To those out of the city we wish to impress most firmly the fact, that you must mail your letter, containing your reserve coupon and any subscriptions you may have received, since you received the last coupon from the office, (a list of them and the amount due for them), from your town in time to reach Wilmington long enough before 7 o'clock to be gotten from the postoffice and placed in the ballot box. This is most important, as it will not be as it was in the Special Offer where you could mail your subscriptions up to 10 o'clock of the night of the close of the offer.

There will be no more copons published in the paper, and the five-vote coupons that are not in the contest office before 12 o'clock Friday will not be counted, as that will positively be the last count of the five-vote coupons.

The final count will be made in some public place where all the public may be present.

The Savings Accounts.

The savings bank accounts that will be offered in the contest are with the American National Bank, of this city, which has a paid-up capital of $150,000 with stockholders' liability of $150,000 and profits of $25,000 making a total protection to depositors of $325,000 with total assets of over $1,250,000 and by way of parenthesis, it might be said that the American is the youngest bank in this section. It is the only National Bank in this section that pays 4 per cent. interest on savings accounts. Some of the National Banks in cities like Richmond, Charleston and Baltimore pay interest on savings but none in this section except the American National. Natonial banks are under the supervision of the United States government, therfore they are safe and nothing could be more attractive as a gift in the big popularity contest now being conducted by the Star.

The American National Bank will move to its new quarters about the middle of next week and in its new home it will have special department for the good ladies of Wilmington and vicinity. In addition to the special department, it will have private rooms for the ladies with lavatory and toilet attached, being one of the nicest equipments in the South.

Interest Quarter: The interest quarter of the American National Bank are January, April, July and Otcober. Deposits made on November the first or second will begin to draw interest from November the 1st.

Directors:—Geo. O Gaylord, Cuthbert Martin, Archie G. Warren, W. B. Cooper, J. J. Hopkins, Geo. W. Huggins, W. B. McClellan, Jos. T. King, V. Sidbury, Herbert McClammy and Thos. E. Cooper.

Healthy Mothers

The bearing of children is frequently followed by poor health for the mother. This supreme crisis of life finding her physical system unprepared for the demands of nature, leaves her with weakened resistive powers and sometimes chronic ailments. This can be avoided if Mother's Friend is used before the coming of baby, and the healthy woman can remain a healthy mother. It is the only remedy that perfectly and thoroughly prepares the system for healthy motherhood, and brings about a natural and easy consummation of the term. Women who use Mother's Friend are always saved much suffering when the little one arrives, and recover more quickly, and with no ill effects, or chronic troubles. Every expectant mother should safeguard her health by using Mother's Friend, thus preparing her physical condition for the hour of motherhood. This medicine is for sale at drug stores. Write for free book for expectant mothers.

THE L. & N. CASE UP.

Commission's Views as to Railroad Claiming to be "Private Carrier."

Washington, Nov. 1.—Re-affirming its right to exercise jurisdiction over private cars when used for the conveyance of amusement outfits, theatrical companies, and the like, the Interstate Commerce Commission today announced its views as to a railroad claiming to be a "private carrier."

The decision was a denial of a petition for re-hearing in the case of Pat Chappelle against the Louisville & Nashville Railroad.

The commission says it cannot recognize the right of the defendant to claim exemption from the provision of the interstate law as to service which it renders as a carrier of persons or property.

"If it is a private carrier, as to private cars or any class of private cars," says the commission, "it may carry such cars free of charge or at any rate that it may choose, differing and distinguishing between each party or car that it carries. Such a construction of the law absolutely nullifies it as to all private equipment, whether carrying passengers of freight.

"A carrier may no doubt lawfully refuse to carry certain classes of private equipment, but it may not distinguish between private cars that are owned by negroes and private cars that are owned by whites, nor between private cars owned by Armour & Co., and private cars of the same class owned by any other concerns."

Charleroi, Belgium, Nov. 1.—One person was killed and 23 were badly injured in a train wreck near here today.

PEARY ASSIGNED TO WORK.

Arctic Explorer Returns to Active Duty November 9th.

Washington, Nov. 1.—Capt. Robert E. Peary, the Arctic explorer, returns to active duty in the Navy Department on November 9th, as engineer expert for the Department of Justice in cases before the court of claims involving construction work for the naval bureau of yards and docks.

This work was the explorer's choice among several places offered him by Acting Secretary of the Navy Winthrop from which to make a selection. Peary would have preferred, it is said, to have been assigned to duty at the naval library to write of his travels in the frozen North.

The explorer has been on leave of absence from the Department for about ten years during which time he has been engaged in Arctic exploration. Recently his last extension of leave expired about the time he was promoted to the rank of captain as the result of the death of a senior officer. A bill is now pending in Congress to make Peary a rear admiral as a mark of recognition for his polar exploits.

There are 15 claim cases pending against the Navy Department, most of them in connection with the construction of dry

COLUMBUS NEWS.

Democratic Outlook Good—Turpentine Prices—Other Items.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Whiteville, N. C., Nov. 1.—Sheriff Richardson has just returned from a canvas of Columbus county, to see how the voters stand. He says everywhere he found the Democrats enthusiastic and hopeful and he predicts that November 8th this county will give Mr. Godwin and the Democratic ticket a record-breaking majority. Many former Republicans have aligned with the Democracy, and it is thought that many others will not vote, as they do not care to lose a day to try and bolster up a hopeless cause. Farmers in town this week all give the same report.

The high price now paid for turpentine has made several Columbus county people who moved to fresh fields in other States big rich. We hear of two young men, who once lived in Whiteville, clearing over $50,000 the past season on turpentine farms. The crop is played out in this section, but a number of people moved to other States and continued the business.

Many farmers are cutting down their black grape vineyards, as there is no sale for them, but increasing the acreage in white scuppernongs.

The State Supreme Court has decided two cases from this county that had created much interest. The first was the divorce suit of McKenzie vs. McKenzie, colored, and in which considerable property was involved. The other was the case of D. J. Lewis vs. H. B. Maxwell, et al., growing out of Mrs. Moffett's will and involving the home of Col. Lewis in Whiteville and the title to other property. The jury in the lower court had sustained the will and which verdict the Supreme Court affirmed. The trial of this case had been highly sensational, and had been hanging on for a long time.

FIELD DAY AT BURGAW.

Faison and Butler Met There Yesterday—Drubbing.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Burgaw, N. C., Nov. 1.—The long-looked forward to joint debate between Dr. John M. Faison, Democratic nominee for Congress, and Mr. George Butler, Republican nominee, took place here this afternoon, beginning at 2 o'clock and continuing till about a quarter to five. The weather was ideal for the occasion and the crowd was one of the largest ever gathered in the Court House. Republicans were thinly scattered around the Court House and among the number were a few negroes. Mr. Butler opened and spoke for about an hour, making a rather hot Republican speech, which was given good attention, although it was plainly seen that a big majority of the crowd did not agree with him, and there was some applause when he sat down. Dr. Faison arose amid a storm of applause and made a great speech for Democracy and white supremacy. He literally wiped up the earth with Butlerism. The applause was vociferous at times and it was plainly seen that the day of Republicanism is past in Pender county. Comparison between such men as Dr. Faison and Mr. Butler is futile to anyone who knows the two men and especially those who were so fortunate as to be present today. It was a great victory for the Democrats and all present, even the Republicans almost, feel that the 8th day of November will end with a grand majority for Democracy.

Dr. Faison went over to Bannerman's Bridge tonight to speak at a special appointment. Butler was also invited to accompany him, but declined.

POLITICS IN NASH.

Campaign Being Rounded Out—Big Rally Next Monday.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Nashville, N. C., Nov. 1.—The last days of the campaign are on in this neck of the woods and elsewhere. The only real fight is on the present board of commissioners, and it is a losing fight. It is true the Republican candidate for the Legislature is in favor of establishing more schools—there are more little schools than the people really want—and is also in favor of abolishing the office of County Superintendent of Schools, but no one takes him seriously. No charge has been made against the present board of commissioners, but some three or four around Nashville who have a personal grievance against some of the commissioners or have a hope of some reward if another board is put in, have said they believe the present board has spent more money than it ought to at the county home.

The Recorder's court was of short duration today. As the days of the election draw near the folks seem to be on their good behavior. One man was sent to the roads for two months for fighting. He took an appeal, but being unable to give a $500 bond, is in jail.

The big day of the campaign will be next Monday when ex-Governor C. B. Aycock will be the orator. It will be a whooping big day in Nashville. All the Democrats will be here, a few Republicans, a brass band. The ladies and children will be here in crowds. No doubt Col. W. S. Bailey, appointed postmaster for Spring Hope, will be here in his automobile. He was a Butler man.

MECKLENBURG SOIL.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Washington, D. C., Nov. 1.—The soil investigation of Mecklenburg county, N. C., conducted by experts of the Bureau of Soils, U. S. Department of Agriculture, in co-operation with the State Department of Agriculture, has been finished and the report is in course of preparation and will be completed during the coming Winter.

The report will show a number of different types of soils all of which are good and suited to the production of a variety of crops. It will show where the soils can be improved through scientific methods and made to produce a better yield to the acre, and will contain recommendations that certain crops be planted.

It will be about a year after the report is completed in manuscript form before it is ready for distribution. By law the Representative in Congress from the district will have for distribution 2,000 copies and each Senator from the State 500.

The soil survey party that was engaged in the Mecklenburg investigation has moved to Johnston county to begin a soil survey there.

REAL ESTATE ACTIVE.

Several Valuable Tracts in Anson Sold Recently.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Wadesboro, Oct. 1.—Real Estate circles are active this week. Mr. C. S. Brasington has bought Mr. W. M. Mortons residence on the Camden Road. Consideration $5,500.

Mr. W. M. Morton, cashier of the Southern Saving Bank, has just closed a deal with W. T. Moss for 123 acres on the White Store Road, consideration $2,400. Mr. Morton has also bought 72 1-2 acres from Mr. C. S. Brasington, adjoining the above tract. Both tracts are a part of the Martin Horne land. Mr. Morton has sold a half interest in both tracts to Mr. T. W. Austin.

Mr. Morton has also been investing in Stanly county. He recently bought 113 acres near Albermarle from Mrs. D. C. Blackwelder. Consideration $4,200.

R. J. Beverly, colored, has bought from Mr. J. H. Ratliff 113 acres of land in Guledge township, known as the Ann Ratliff place, consideration $6,631.25.

MARRIED IN FLORIDA.

Anson Young Lady Yielded to Entreaties of Cupid.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Wadesboro, N. C., Nov. 1.—Miss Minnie May Marsh, who is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Marsh, of Wadesboro, N. C., while visiting her cousin, Mrs. Milliard A. Dumas, of 2018 Hubbard street, Jacksonville, Fla., yielded to the entreaties of cupid. At 7 o'clock last Wednesday evening Rev. C. H. Summers, of Springfield M. E. church, was present at the pretty home of Mr. and Mrs. Dumas, and with a very impressive ceremony made Miss Marsh and Mr. Franklin Austin McCollum man and wife.

The marriage was a quiet one, with only a few friends of the parties present. Mr. McCollum was formerly of Maxton, N. C., but has resided in Jacksonville for the past six months.

QUEER CASE OF MRS. CANTRELL

Lady in Big Sandy, Tenn., Put to Bed Every Two Weeks, To Stay Several Days.

Big Sandy, Tenn.—"Every two weeks," writes Mrs. Lucy Cantrell, of this place, "I had to go to bed and stay there several days. I suffered untold misery. Nothing seemed to help me, until I tried Cardui, the woman's tonic. Although I had been afflicted with womanly weaknesses for seven years before I took Cardui, Cardui helped me more than anything else ever did. It is surely the best tonic for women on earth."

For more than half a century, Cardui, the woman's tonic, has been benefiting women, suffering from the various ailments peculiar to their sex.

Because your case may be a difficult one, do not continue to suffer, without giving Cardui a trial. It certainly has helped thousands of other women. Why not you?

You need not fear to take Cardui, freely and regularly, and for as long a time as you feel it helps you. It is purely vegetable—perfectly harmless—can do you nothing but good.

It costs but a trifle to try, and it may mean much to you.

For sale by all druggists. (40,000, at least.)

SPECIAL RULING FOR LINER.

French Steamer Finally Allowed to Re-Load Her Cargo.

New Orleans, Nov. 1.—A novel problem in the United States customs regulations and one of unusual importance to the shipping interests of the country has been disposed of by a special ruling of the Treasury Department authorizing the restoration to the French liner Louisane of her cargo, which was lightered and deposited at Key West when the vessel stranded recently off the Florida coast. Notice of the special ruling was received here today by the agents of the French line.

Shortly after the Louisane went aground the French line officials were denied the right to re-load the cargo on the Louisane or on other steamers of the same line. The Treasury Department held that the cargo, after having been landed at Key West, was made coastwise and could not be trans-shipped to another American port except in a vessel flying the American colors. The Louisane's cargo of 350 tons was consigned to New Orleans and consisted largely of choice imported wines and liquors for the holiday trade. Because of the few American merchant vessels plying between New Orleans and Atlantic coast points, the French line officials found it practically impossible to get the cargo moved. After much delay, the entreaties of the French line officials resulted in the special ruling.

THE DRY GOODS MARKET.

New York, Nov. 1.—The cotton goods market holds steady but quiet, the best prices reported on staple prints for Spring. The export markets are quiet. Woolens rule firm with trading moderate. The carpet auction was continued during the day, the buying being brisk and prices ruling about as the opening.

"Lame Leg Well"

"I wish to say that I have used Sloan's Liniment on a lame leg that has given me much trouble for six months. It was so bad that I couldn't walk sometimes for a week. I tried doctors' medicine and had a rubber bandage for my leg, and bought everything that I heard of, but they all did me no good, until at last I was persuaded to try Sloan's Liniment. The first application helped it, and in two weeks my leg was well."—A. L. HUNTER, of Hunter, Ala.

One Way of Saving a Baby—Free to Try

The mother does not live who would not do all in her power to keep her child healthy, but often she does not know how. So when a doctor of standing points the way all can afford to listen.

It is an accepted fact that nine out of ten of the troubles of infants and children is intestinal. You notice it by the fact that the child is constipated, it belches, is peevish and cries. Don't give a remedy that contains an opiate, because the child will get in the habit of needing it, and don't become alarmed and run at once for a doctor.

Try a scientific laxative first. Give a small dose of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, the remedy that is intended for the use of children. It is mild, gentle and non-griping. The remedy is absolutely pure and is guaranteed in every particular. Mrs. Toomey of Emingsville, Pa., and Mrs. Fred Croms of Alanson, Mich., never give their children anything else. These are only a few among thousands of women.

You can buy a fifty cent or one dollar bottle of any nearby druggist, for they have all sold it for a generation, but if you want to test it on your child first send your address to Dr. Caldwell and he will cheerfully send you a free sample bottle.

Dr. Caldwell does not feel that the purchase of his remedy ends his obligation. He has specialized in stomach, liver and bowel diseases for over forty years and will be pleased to give the reader any advice on the subject free of charge. All are welcome to write him. Whether for the medical advice or the free sample address him Dr. W. B. Caldwell, 541 Caldwell building, Monticello, Ill.

FULL ASSOCIATED PRESS REPORT.

PUBLISHERS' ANNOUNCEMENT.

THE MORNING STAR, the oldest daily newspaper in North Carolina, is published daily except Monday, at $6 per year, $3 for six months, $1.50 for three months, 50 cents for one month, served by carrier in the city or by mail.

THE SUNDAY STAR, by mail, one year, $1; six months, 50 cents; three months, 25 cents.

ADVERTISING RATES may be had on application and advertisers may feel assured that through the columns of this paper they may reach all Wilmington, Eastern Carolina and contiguous territory in South Carolina.

Obituary sketches, cards or thanks, communications espousing the cause of a private enterprise or a political candidate, and like matter, will be charged at the rate of 10 cents per line, or if paid cash in advance, a half rate will be allowed. Announcements of fairs, festivals, balls, hops, picnics, society meetings, political meetings, etc., will be charged under same conditions except so much thereof as may be of news value to readers of the paper.

Advertisements discontinued before expiration of contracts are charged transient rates for time actually published. Payment for transient advertisements must be cash in advance. Contract advertisers will not be allowed to exceed their space at same rates or advertise anything foreign to their regular business without extra charge. Advertisements to occupy special place will be charged for according to position desired.

TELEPHONES: Business Office No. 51; Editorial and Local rooms No. 61. Call either if the other doesn't answer.

COMMUNICATIONS, unless they contain important news, or discuss briefly and properly subjects of real interest, are not wanted; and if acceptable in every other way, they will be invariably rejected unless the real name of the author accompanies the same, not necessarily for publication but as a guarantee of good faith.

I wish I were able to go from the East to the Tennessee line and tell this message to all the people. I have not long to live, I have children and grandchildren; but I say to you that no stroke of this right hand shall aid in putting the Republican party over these children and grandchildren. I say it because I have tried it in the past and, having tried it in the past and having found nothing but ruin and disgrace, I cannot help but fight it now.—C. B. Watson.

Marion Butler is the original boomerang of the "respectable Republican party of North Carolina."

After all that has happened to Marion Butler over his own signature, attached to an advertisement giving himself away on his repudiated bond record, he had the nerve at Rutherfordton on Monday to challenge Senator Overman to a joint debate. The Senator and Butler both spoke there that day, but the Senator refused to dignify Mary Ann to the extent or recognizing his challenge.

According to Bradstreet's, present prices are now about 60 per cent above the price level in 1896. Salaried people and wage earners, therefore, must get 60 per cent more to pay than they did in 1896 in order to come out even. However, wages and salaries have not increased in proportion to the expansion in prices. If the tariff fixes prices, as alleged by misguided, over zealous, or deceptive Republican spellbinders, it has neglected to give wages and salaries as much showing as it has the prices of commodies.

Secretary Ballinger's Attorney, John Vertrees, Esq., got under Roosevelt's skin in an address which he issued through the State Democratic committee in Tennessee on Monday. It corners Teddy about refraining from displaying his wisdom concerning the negro problem, while eulogizing old John Brown and making a martyr and saint of the villanous fanatic who led a movement inspired with murder and anarchy. He calls the Colonel "that pansophical, self-appointed school master," which is a new one on America's polyhedrical politician.

According to an Associated Press dispatch from Pittsburg yesterday, the government began an investigation of the "Bath-tub Trust." The protective tariff even puts a heavy tax on people who try to keep clean. The tariff for the benefit of bath-tub manufacturers shuts out the importation of bath-tubs, and with foreign bath-tubs eliminated, American bath-tub manufacturers combined, agreed not to compete with each other, and then with competition of every description laid out they make the people pay two prices for bath-tubs and sanitary apparatus or do without. An unreasonable tariff is a handicap on cleanliness as well as living.

It is related that a minister, endeavoring in an adroit way to ascertain from a small boy whether his father 'asked the blessing,' said to the youngster: "What is it your father says before you all start to eat?" Not intending to give his father away or to emphasize the high cost of living, the boy innocently replied: "Well, pa always starts in by saying 'you kids will have to eat less, for it costs twice as much to feed you as it used to.'" Vice President Sherman boasts that the Republican party is responsible for high prices, and, as consumers, the kids should remind dad to vote against the party that takes bread out of their mouths.

POLITICAL BATTLE NEAR SEND.

Next Tuesday is election day, so this week is the last in which the campaigners can hope to affect the result to be recorded at the ballot box. It is generally conceded that the result will be an overwhelming Democratic victory. Nothing but the most encouraging news comes from every quarter of the Union, the only State in which Democratic prospects are not satisfactory being Massachusetts. The fractional fight in the Democratic ranks in that State did not close in time for the party to get together to make its best showing, although it is said that even Massachusetts may hold in reserve a Democratic surprise for election day.

It is conceded that New York State will go overwhelmingly Democratic. The fight there is against standpatism and Rooseveltism. The result in New York involves the future of Theodore Roosevelt as a factor in National politics. However, in order to win, the Democrats must beat the Republican party, led by Roosevelt, and the Independence League led by William Randolph Hearst. It is not believed, however, that Hearst will have a following of more than 50,000 voters and it is said that more of them will be Republicans than Democrats. It would be safer to bet on New York, however, if Hearst were out of the way and were supporting the Democratic ticket. However, Mr. Hearst has been fighting the Democratic ticket through his papers, but at the same time he announced in a letter to the New York World, under date of October 28, that he is not in any sense a suporter of Mr. Roosevelt. In his letter to the World Mr. Hearst sizes up Col. Roosevelt as follows:

"I know him to be astonishingly inconsistent and I cannot reconcile so great inconsistency with sincerity or with high purpose. I know him to be ambitious, vain and selfish, reckless and eratic and I do not consider these qualities compatible with a sound policy or a safe conduct of public affairs."

Mr. Hearst, in his estimate of Ex-President Roosevelt, takes the same view of him held by millions of American people and yet it is strange that he is leading a movement which will help Roosevelt rather than hurt him. The Independence League cannot hope to win but it may help Roosevelt to win. However, if we may judge from the tone of the press in New York City, and throughout the State, nothing will prevent the defat of Roosevelt, as he is regarded as the issue and not Republicanism.

It is generally believed that Governor Harmon will again carry Ohio and that Woodrow Wilson will be elected Governor of New Jersey, while Indiana will no doubt be carried by the Democrats. It is also believed that Connecticut will roll up a Democratic majority while several Western States will either be carried by Democrats or Insurgents. Taking the situation as a whole, there is every indication that throughout the United States the Democrats will elect an overwhelming majority of Congress. Only 23 representatives more than the Democrats had in the last House would give the Democrats control of the House. Maine has already led off by electing two Democrats to Congress so that the balance of the country is expected to furnish the other 21. The result in a number of States heretofore Republican indicate that they will elect Democratic Legislatures and it is believed that in two years the Democrats will also have a majority of the Senate. In the event, then, that a Democratic President is elected, the Jeffersonians will be in complete control of the Union. However that may be, the Democrats and Insurgents will control the next Congress.

No doubt the South will remain solid in the face of all the glorious prospects now head of the Democratic party. The only gloomy spot in Southern territory is in Tennessee where a Democratic faction has fused with the Republicans. The regular Democrats are led by Senator Bob Taylor, for Governor, and although he will have a hard fight the chances are growing that he will whip out fusion. As for North Carolina, there is every reason to believe that the State will give at least 30,000 Democratic majority.

When the Raleigh News and Observer comes at 'em red headed they take to the woods.

J. vonMeyer, Secretary of the Navy of one of the World Powers, paid a visit to President Gomez, of Cuba, at Havana, on Monday. No, that Naval official did not represent Germany but happens to be at the head of the great naval establishment of the United States. It is impossible to detect our Americanism by our names.

Eight Christians have been massacred by natives in the Philippines, but, according to a dispatch from Washington, Brigadier General Pershing reports to the War Department that he "does not regard the situation as serious." ## MANLY VOTERS VS. MARY ANN.

Both the Democratic and Republican campaign speakers pay high tributes to the good sense and patriotism of North Carolina voters. It is generally agreed that the good, honest voters of North Carolina want to do what is right in the light they see their duty to their families and to their State. We believe when questions are fairly and sincerely put to true men they can be trusted at the ballot box. That is the reason we believe in popular government. That is the reason we believe in Democracy. That is the reason we believe the people should rule. Sometimes the people in the aggregate make mistakes, but when they are appealed to and see the error of their ways enough of them are open to reason to correct any mistake they may make. We have seen North Carolina voters tried in that respect and we have rejoiced to see them reverse their positions at the ballot box in the interest of their beloved State.

In this election the Democratic and Republican voters of the Good Old North State have had two differenciating appeals made to their reason. The first is to vote for the continuance of a State Democratic administration as their sole dependence for protection of the best interests of North Carolina and for the continuance of her splendid progress in social, civic, educational, agricultural and industrial progress and development. The people of North Carolina have tried a different administration during two periods of the State's history and the result has been sad, woeful, lamentable and disastrous. There is no use to remind a sensible, State-loving North Carolinian of the plain facts in the case. Republicans, and there are many honest and well meaning men of that political faith, and Democrats alike, are expected to do their duty to North Carolina and they can do it only by voting against a change of administration in this State. They are also expected to vote for themselves, in their own interest as consumers, so that both State and Nationally there is every reason why there should be practically unanimous support for the Democratic nominees in the election next Tuesday.

So far as the National questions of the day are concerned, the high cost of living and the legislation of the Republican Congress, which favors special interests, is sufficient to appeal to any man to vote at least one time for himself and his family. In the State, Marion Butler alone furnishes a sufficient reason for Democrats and Republicans alike to repudiate the Republican State organization under its present control. Of course, Democrats are expected to be true to their colors, and Republicans have every reason for deserting theirs. They can thus repudiate Butlerism, under which they can never hope to build up a Republican party in North Carolina.

The Morehead-Butler combination whipped out the former Republican organization and they were followed by the Republican majority in their State convention. That they have been deceived in two glaring particulars it is not necessary to state, as there is plenty of Republican testimony to rely upon without any Democratic statement. The simple and indisputable evidence produced by Marion Butler himself in connection with his record as to North Carolina's repudiated bonds, is all that is necessary for a fair-minded Republican or a true Democrat to consider for one moment. The revelation in that respect has been made and it is overwhelming. The Charlotte Observer remarked a few days ago that the latest exposure of Butler's bond plot would have "an explosive effect." That is what it has had, and it expresses the correct idea of what should have happened when the fuse was applied to the Butler bomb. The Observer, which is an independent Democratic paper, more than fair to the Republicans, in further commenting upon the Butler bond expose, said in an editorial yesterday:

"Too much stress can hardly be laid upon this language in the New York Evening Post advertisement to which ex-Senator Marion Butler's name was signed along with his associates' five years ago: 'The recent decision of the Supreme Court of the United States, entitled South Dakota vs. North Carolina, wherein the former State secured a judgment against the latter on ten bonds, par value, $10,000, amounting with interest to $27,400 (which has just been paid) has greatly enhanced the value of all an assertion, he sticks, without regard to the proof. So outrageous is his conduct in this respect that at least one New York paper supporting Stimson for governor, comes out boldly and says the colonel should stop this kind of work, for it is sure to help defeat the nominee. But he does not stop; he grows worse.—Greensboro Record.

The young men—"first voters"—hold the balance of power in North Carolina. Their State is in the balance and they should give it the right tip at the ballot box on the 8th of November. Young patriots will be pretty apt to be there with the straight goods bearing the Democratic label.—Wilmington Star. Durham's first voters club numbers 219. Within one week of the election several thousand workers in the New York express service are on a strike for higher wages. If the tariff fixes wages it evidently has fixed them too low to suit the expressmen. Go to !

The young North Carolinian who will cast his first vote in this election should make sure that it has no flybiows on it. Don't cast a ballot that you would give anything to recall in a few years from now.

We know now why the average North Carolinian used to fall down and have duckfits at the idea of bond issues. They got the habit when Republicans were in power and considered bonds as either souvenirs or personal perquisites.

When you buy a $1.50 razor made in this country you get 50 cents worth of razor, 47 cents worth of tariff and pay the balance in profit. It isn't everybody who buys a razor but everybody buys something on which he pays tariff taxes that gouge outrageously.

COTTON RECEIPTS INCREASE

Movement for Month of October at Port of Wilmington—450 Bales is the Increase—Rosin and Crude Make Good Showing.

Although the cotton season was several weeks later this year, the showing in receipts of the staple at the port for October is very favorable and an increase of 450 bales is shown over the same period last year. Foreign exports during October have also been heavier by several thousand bales.

The receipts were 118,042 compared with 117,592 October a year ago, as posted at the Chamber of Commerce yesterday. The showing is an indication of a better cotton crop as reported at various times during the past few months throughout the cotton belt. Seven steamers cleared from Wilmington for foreign ports with the staple during the month, carrying 111,262 against 101,871 last year.

Besides the good showing in foreign export an excellent showing was made in domestic exports, with an increase of several thousand bales, the figures being 5,224 bales against 2,315 bales. The same number of steamers cleared with the staple for foreign exports during October as in the same month last year. The price of cotton went as high as 14 3-4 cents during the month, this being three-quarters of a cent higher than it reached during the same period of the season 1910-11.

In receipts of naval stores two items show an increase over October last year. The casks of spirits received were 997 against 712 and 1,323 barrels of crude turpentine against 997 barrels. A small decrease was shown in other items in naval stores.

THE RECORDER'S COURT.

Ed. Russ, White Man, Given Total of Five Months on Roads.

Ed. Russ, a white man, was the star performer in a brief session of the Recorder's court yesterday morning and as a result he will do time for the county on the roads for the next five months. Late Monday afternoon a message was received at police headquarters to the effect that a man living on Market, between Second and Third streets, was choking and beating his wife. When the officers arrived they learned that reference was to Ed. Russ, who hurried away from home when police headquarters was called by 'phone. The officers later found Russ on Chestnut, near Front street, in an intoxicated condition and sent him to the hall where a charge of drunkenness was preferred. Yesterday morning the additional charge of assault on his wife was brought against him. He was found guilty and sentenced to 30 days on the roads in each case. Russ was arrested on September 24 for drunkenness and resisted the officer. At the trial next day he was fined $25 and costs, or three months on the roads. The defendant's father came down and arranged the matter so that Russ was given his freedom. The judgment was still against the defendant and yesterday morning the Recorder gave him the three months sentence, making a total of five months Russ will have to serve on the roads. Isham Blake, a white man, at one of the convict camps, was arraigned on the charge of drunkenness, and was let off upon payment of the costs.

FOOTBALL GAME FRIDAY.

Rocky Mount and Wilmington High School Teams to Play.

The Wilmington High School foot ball team and the Wilkerson High School team, of Rocky Mount, will meet on the gridiron at League Park Friday afternoon of this week for a battle royal and there is much interest in the approaching contest among pupils of the schools and others who like to witness an exhibition of the sport. The Wilmington High School has a strong team, although made up principally of inexperienced players, and the first contest with Donaldson Military School at Fayetteville last week resulted in a tie, notwithstanding the fact that the local team was outweighed 15 pounds to the man and had played together very little. The Rocky Mount team is also strong and a fine exhibition is looked for when the two teams meet Frida yafternoon. The game will be called at 3:30 o'clock. The general admission will be 25 cents and school children 15 cents.

CITY HEALTH DEPARTMENT.

Report for Month of October Showing Number Deaths, Births, Etc.

The report of the city health department for the month of October has just been completed. During the month there were 51 deaths, 16 whites and 35 colored; 40 births, 16 whites and 24 colored. During the month there were 6,067 inspections of premises; 3,546 surface closets ordered cleaned; 650 orders issued for disinfectants and about 100 orders filled. The report of contagious diseases shows that there were nine new cases of diphtheria, and five remaining; seven new cases of scarlet fever with six remaining, and 18 new cases of smallpox with eight remaining. The fumigating officer, Mr. E. Piner, fumigated 49 rooms. Fifteen complaints were received and investigated and 12 nuisances abated, there being no cause in the other three.

RULES AND REGULATIONS

Governing Navigation in the Inland Waterway From Pamlico Sound to Beaufort Have Been Issued—Near Completion.

Now that the inland waterway from Pamlico Sound to Beaufort Inlet, an important link in the intra-coastal waterway, is nearing completion and will be formally opened for traffic within the next few weeks, Mr. Robert Shaw Oliver, acting secretary of War, has just issued rules and regulations to govern navigation on the stream, copies of which are being sent out by Capt. Earl I. Brown, U. S. Engineer, in charge of this district.

The rules and regulations, which are effective November 15th, 1910, are made in pursuance of an amendment to Section 4 of the river and harbor act adopted June 13th, 1902. The rules and regulations follow:

"1. Vessels navigating this waterway shall not proceed at a speed greater than six miles per hour in those portions of the waterway between the head of Adams Creek and Newport river.

"2. Vessels shall not anchor in the waterway. Should it be necessary for any vessel to stop in the waterway, it shall be tied up to the bank in such manner as not to obstruct the passage of other vessels.

"3. Vessels incapable of passing beneath the closed draws of drawbridges shall give prompt signal of the opening of such bridges day or night, by indicating such desire to the tender by four blasts of a steam whistle, horn, megaphone, or other suitable instrument before arriving within one-half mile of such bridge.

"4. The rafting of timber on this waterway is forbidden. Should the transportation of timber over the waterway be desired, it must be transported on scows or other vessels, which must be provided with suitable appliances for preventing any timber from falling overboard.

"5. Should any party or parties cause, permit, or allow any timber being so transported over this waterway to fall overboard, such party or parties shall at once proceed to recover such timber and to remove it from the waterway."

CIVIC COMMITTEES MEET.

Those Named by Commercial Club Urge Public Improvements.

A meeting of the committees recently chosen by the Commercial Club to urge certain public improvements, namely, better storage and wharf facilities, bridge across the Northeast river connecting Pender and New Hanover counties, and a free ferry, held a meeting at the Chamber of Commerce yesterday.

Matters in general were discussed, but no concerted action taken. Plans were devised to be brought up before the committees at a later date and acted upon. Most of the time of the meeting was taken up with the discussion of better storage facilities and the advantage it would be for the port. It was intimated that the free ferry matter will be taken up with the Board of County Commissioners with a view of getting suggestions as to the proper course to work upon this matter.

Those present at the meeting were as follows: Messrs. L. B. Rogers, C. N. Evans, M. W. Jacobi, W. E. Perdew, T. H. Wright, J. O. Reilly, J. H Rehder, C. C. Covington, Z. W. Whitehead. Besides the regular members of the committees, Capt. Earl I. Brown, corps of engineers, U. S. A., was present and spoke to them on the various matters brought up for discussion.

Will be Married Tonight.

A marriage of much interest to many friends in this city will be celebrated at the home of the bride tonght, when Miss Hattie Augusta Silvia, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. G. Silvia, and Mr. William Thomas Brown will plight their troth. Both are well known and popular with a wide circle of friends who will be interested to know of their approaching marriage.

Timber Preserved in Water.

Mr. W. G. Baldwin was in the city yesterday and exhibited a piece of timber recently removed from the bed of the river at the bridge over Northeast river where it had lain in 35 feet of water for 65 years or ever since the Wilmington & Weldon road was built. The timber is remarkably well preserved and is as good as the day it was placed in the structure. It is a remarkable illustration of the preservative power of water upon timber when completely submerged.

ITCHING IRRITATION.

When you suffer with any skin trouble, even though the itching seems unbearable, do not think that it is necessary to use some disgusting greasy ointment. Try Hokara, a pure and simple skin food, that is guaranteed to contain no grease or acids and which is so cleanly that it does not soil the linen.

Its power to instantly relieve any irritation of the skin and make it soft white and beautiful is almost miraculous.

Not only are minor skin troubles, like pimples, blackheads, ache, barber's itch, etc., quickly cured, but the worst ulcers or cases of salt rheum or eczema are cleaned and healed by this wonderful skin food.

In order that any one may try Hokara at small expense, J. Hicks Bunting Drug Co. are selling a liberal sized jar at 25 cents, and in addition guarantee to refund the money if the treatment does not do all that is claimed for it. Larger size 50 cents.

If the skin trouble is caused by impure blood or if the bowels are inactive, use Hokara Blood Tablets. They cool and cleanse the blood and regu-

AUDIT AND FINANCE BOARD

Wide Range of Matters Before the Body in Semi-Monthly Session Last Night—Comments by Chairman Heyer.

The Board of Audit and Finance in regular semi-annual session for an hour and a half last night with Chairman M. J. Heyer presiding and Messrs. Wilder and Cooper, members of the board, and Capt. Thos. D. Meares, the clerk, in attendance took a fall out with things in general pertaining to the administration of city affairs, the net result being that the clerk was instructed to write a communication to the chairman of the commissioners of Streets calling his attention to several matters in the conduct of his department that they think should be corrected and also directed that a communication be sent to the chairman of the Police and Fire Commission asking the authority of the Commission to sell a fire horse.

After the reading of the minutes, the bond of Southerland, Simon & Co., for $600 for furnishing police uniforms was received and approved by the board, and a communication was received from the Commissioners of Streets showing warrants drawn by that department during the month of October, copies of which had previously been mailed to the members of the board by Capt. Meares. Chairman Heyer called attention to several items appearing in this report which seems to him an unnecessary expenditure of the city's money. First, A. G. Ricaud, Esq., $5 for legal services, and the chairman inquired of the clerk if he knew what this service consisted of, and the clerk replied that he understood that it was for passing on a contract. Further down the list appeared another bill for $100 and some odd dollars for legal services and the clerk said that this amount was paid to Mr. Ricaud for interpreting a decision of the Supreme Court or the Commissioners, as he understood it. Chairman Heyer thought it the duty of the city attorney to pass upon all contracts made by the city and to give opinions on matters where such are desired and if it were not his duty to pass on contracts, then his powers should be enlarged. He said that the Street Commission as well as other commissions was a part and parcel of the city government and in all matters where in the services of an attorney are needed, the city attorney should be consulted, or do away with a city attorney. Mr. Cooper inquired if the board had any authority in the premises or was the report sent over merely for the information of the members of the board. Chairman Heyer replied that he thought the Board of Audit and Finance did have the authority in such matters, and then called attention to a third item, $19 and some cents for stenographic work done outside the office of the Street Commissioner when a clerk is regularly employed by that body at a salary of $50 a month. Mr. Heyer thought that a clerk with no more to do than the clerk of the Street Commission should be able to do all the office work. Chairman Heyer then proceeded to the engineering department. He said that the city engineer was paid a stipulated salary of $2,400 a year with the understanding, he thought, that he was to give his entire time to the city; that he had been informed that the city engineer maintains an office outside of the City Hall building, where an office has been provided for him, and employs an assistant engineer to attend to his private work. Mr. Heyer said if this were true did not think that the engineer should be paid as much as had been agreed upon. The clerk was instructed to write a communication to the Street Commission calling attention to these matters. Chairman Heyer again expressed himself in favor of employing a city attorney on a salary basis and thought that it would not only be economy but more satisfactory to the city, no discounting, however, the services of the present able city attorney, whom he said was one of the best in the city. He favored the elimination of the fee system in this office and paying the attorney a straight salary and expect him to attend to all legal matters connected with the city government, except in defending a suit or where the services of more than one attorney is needed. Later on in the meeting attention was called to the fact that two assistant engineers are employed and the clerk was instructed to incorporate in his communication to the Commissioners of Streets that when it is thought necessary to have more than one assistant engineer the chairman of the commission should appear before the board and explain why it is necessary to have an additional engineer.

"During my trip to Europe," said Chairman Heyer, "I gave no little thought to and made many inquiries relative to the government of cities in those countries visited. I was forced to the conclusion that city government in America, not Wilmington alone, is a failure, but a success in Europe. In America one wants to get office to reflect credit on himself, while in Europe they get a man to reflect credit on the office, or they soon let him go. They hire a man just like a grocer would hire a clerk and if he makes good he is promoted in time to the same line of work in larger cities." Mr. Heyer also commented upon the small number of police officers employed in some of the large cities he visited. All of this was by way of preliminaries to the point he was leading up to. "I understand," he continued, "since my return that there is a movement on foot in Wilmington for a Commission form of government. I believe it would be cheaper, but the business men of Wilmington ought to come together and select men for the several positions and employ the best legal talent to draft a bill to be presented to the next Legislature and should not leave this important matter to politicians." fact that business men, as a rule, stay away from the polls during the primary and this is often responsible for bad government. Mr. Heyer also called attention to the excellent streets in the cities, both large and small, he visited on his European tour.

Returning to the business before the board, Capt. Meares said that a bill had been received from the county for $3,200 for improvements on Wright street and called attention to the fact that the act creating the Street Commission says that the Tidewater Power Company shall keep up the surface between its tracks and 18 inches on each side while the franchise granted the company requires only 12 inches on each side, this making a difference in the bill for the Wright street work of about $156. The matter has been referred to Alderman F. W. Bonitz, chairman of the Streets and Wharves Committee, who will secure the opinion of the city attorney as to how much on each side of its tracks the Tidewater Power Company is required to keep in repair.

Chairman Heyer remarked on the street sweeping as done at present and declared that it was not done as thoroughly as it was a year ago. Captain Meares called attention to the sale of a fire horse by the Police and Fire Commission. Chairman Heyer said that he understood that one of the horses of the fire department had been sold for 150 bushels of oats, the animal, he understood, now being in services as a draft horse for a Wilmington firm. There were two things it was desired to call attention to, the lack of authority of the commission to sell the city's property and also the effect the sale of the horse has on the books, feed being secured for a certain number of horses, while one of the horses included in the number is not being fed, but disposed of for feed that is being given to the remainder of the total number. Chairman Heyer said that he thought the chairman of the commission should be held responsible for the sale of the animal. It was decided to direct a letter of inquiry to the commission, as above stated. The board then adjourned.

WILMINGTONIAN IN ATLANTA.

Atlanta Journal Man Gets Off Good One on Alleged Tar Heel.

Some few weeks ago two young gentlemen of this city went to Atlanta, "the hub of the universe," one to buy some mules for his company and the other on other business. One of them is reputed to have had to leave Atlanta rather hurriedly on his return; in fact so hurriedly that he did not have time to tell his friends and relatives good-bye. It was all a puzzle to the Wilmingtonian's friends until "The Gopher" a side-light reporter on one of the Atlanta papers got off the following in his column under a cut of a man beating a rather hasty retreat down one of the thoroughfares of the Gate City:

The weather will probably be slightly cooler.

"Life in a large and hustling city like Atlanta is filled with queer and sometimes harrowing experiences for the man whose mournful lot in life has been cast among the classic shades of a drowsy village like Wilmington, N. C., remarked The Gopher.

"A man who lived in Wilmington but can't help it because he was born there, came over to Atlanta for to visit his friend a day or so ago. While standing on a Whitehall street corner counting the street cars he carelessly placed his hand on the handle of the fire alarm box and pulled down on it.

"When something on the inside began to buzz like a circle saw ripping through an oak log, he looked around with a hunted look on his face and asked his friend, 'What the bloomin' thing meant.'

"'Why, that's a fire alarm box and you've turned in the fire alarm,' was the reply. It means a $200 fine for anybody to ring that thing when there is no fire, and if you know of a nice, quiet hole in some convenient wall, I'd advise you to take a sneak taither with all possible speed.'

"The man from Wilmington needed no second warning and by the time pedestrians in the vicinity could take a second look he was a fast diminishing blur in the distant landscape."

RECKONED WITHOUT HIS HOST.

E. Dinos, Greek Confectioner, Attempted to Move Into Bank.

E. Dinos, a Greek confectioner, who recently leased the premises which the American National Bank will vacate upon removal to its new home in the Gaylord building, reckoned without his host when he drove up yesterday morning with his stock of fruits and candies and attempted to move in forcibly. Mr. Thos. E. Cooper, cashier of the American bank, met him at the door with his effects and the complications between the two Nationalities promised to be International in their character, until Dinos finally left his stock on the sidewalk and departed in search of a lawyer. Meantime the police appeared and informed Dinos that he could not block the sidewalk and Mr. Cooper was just as emphatic in his assertion that he could not enter the bank with his "truck." In the meantime lawyers are being sought and the grievances of the respective parties will likely be aired in court, the American Bank doing business at the old stand in the meantime.

MR. J. E. KELLY DEAD.

Well Known Citizen Passed Away Yesterday After Long Illness.

Many friends will learn with sincere regret of the death of Mr. J. E. Kelly, who passed away at his home, No. 906 North Fourth street, at 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon, after an illness extending over a period of about five years. Mr. Kelly suffered a stroke of paralysis about five years ago and since that time has been confined to his home, but was able to sit up until about a month ago, when he suffered the second stroke. Since then his condition has grown steadily worse and loved ones and friends realized that the end was drawing near.

Mr. Kelly was a native of New York, being born in the metropolis in 1834, making him in the 67th year of his age at the time of his death. When only 17 years old he came South, locating at Whiteville, N. C., and when the call to arms was sounded in 1861, he entered the service of the Confederacy and served throughout the struggle with valor and bravery. During the war he lost his right arm and received other wounds in battle. At the close of the war he moved to Wilmington, where he spent the remainder of his life, and for 35 years was in the employ of the Chadbourn Lumber Co., of this city.

In 1870 Mr. Kelly was married to Miss Lucy Williams, of this city, and she with three children, two sons and one daughter, survive, these being Messrs. J. A. and A. L. Kelly, and Mrs. H. F. Farrar, all of this city. Mr. Kelly was for a number of years a consistent member of the Methodist Church, holding his membership at Bladen Street Church at the time of his death. He was a man held in the highest esteem by all who knew him and the sorrowing relatives have the sympathy of a great many friends in their bereavement.

The funeral will be held this afternoon, at 4 o'clock, from the late residence, conducted by the Rev. W. L. Rexford, his pastor, assisted by Rev. C. F. Whitlock, pastor of Brooklyn Baptist Church and the interment will be in Bellevue cemetery.

LECTURE AND DEMONSTRATION.

Illuminating Expert Heard With Interest by Large Number.

Mr. H. W. Karstens illuminating expert of the Holophane Company, gave a valuable and interesting lecture and demonstration in the vacant store adjoining the offices of the Tidewater Power Company, in the Woolvin building, last night. Between 150 and 200 representative men and women of the city heard the lecture and witnessed the demonstration, which was not only interesting, but profitable to them, for they learned many points relative to the correct way to light any particular space. Mr. Karstens showed how to control light and the difference between the ordinary shade and the Holophane scientific reflector, which is designed for commercial and residential purposes as well as for factory use. The audience was surprised to note the effect of a two-candle power electric light with the use of a deflector, as compared with a 32-candle power light without the reflector, this demonstration alone convincing them of the value and economy of the reflector. The lecture and demonstration having proved such a success, a repetition tonight has been urged in order that hundreds of others who had other engagements last night might hear the lecture and witness the demonstrations, but this had not been decided last night. However, Mr. Karstens will remain in the city for several days and will be pleased to make appointments with those interested and give valuable assistance in aiding them to solve their lighting problems. Some ten or 15 appointments were made at the close of the lecture last evening.

MAGNIFICIENT DISPLAY.

Mr. Will Rehder Has Fine Exhibit of Flowers and Plants.

One of the most beautiful flower and plant exhibits it has ever been the privilege of Wilmingtonians to visit and feast their eyes upon opened in the store formerly occupied by the Delmonico Cafe, on North Front street, yesterday afternoon and will continue for about a week. It is needless to say who is giving this magnificient display, for it could be none other than Alderman Will Rehder, the well known florist, who has one of the largest and most complete floral establishments in the State, and who supplies not only a large portion of Wilmington with the choicest flowers and plants but has a large clientele throughout eastern Carolina and upper part of South Carolina. The store room presents a scene of beauty and must be seen to be appreciated, for no pen description would do it justice. There is a large and varied selection of evergreens and flowers taken from Mr. Rehder's floral establishment. The stock will be replenished every morning from his floral gardens, so that fresh flowers and plants will be on display each day. There is also on display ribbons and chiffons, etc., floral garden accessories. The public is cordially invited to visit the display and they will certainly feel doubly repaid for their visit.

THOROUGHLY ENJOYABLE H ALLOWE'EN PARTY.

One of the most elaborate, beautiful and thoroughly delightful Hallowe'en parties of the season was given Monday evening by Mrs. W. B. Cooper at the hospitable Cooper home, No. 207 North Fifth street, and the large number of young people in attendance spent an evening of unalloyed pleasure. The home was most attractively and appropriately decorated throughout and presented a most beautiful scene. Mrs. Cooper was assisted in receiving her guests by Mrs. L. A. Blue and Mrs. Hulls. Miss Lottie Smith essayed the part of the fortune teller and the unfolding of the future to the guests assembled proved one of the most pleasing features of the evening. Dainty refreshments were served. Along about the midnight hour the guests departed, declaring Mrs. Cooper was a most charming hostess.

PRETTY HOME WEDDING CELEBRATED LAST EVENING.

One of the most elaborate and beautiful home weddings of the season was celebrated at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. McEachern, No. 332 South Sixth street, at six o'clock last evening, when, in a very pretty and impressive ceremony, Miss Lillian Grant Davis, the attractive and accomplished daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Davis, of Scott's Hill, became the bride of Mr. Adolph George Ahrens, one of Wilmington's most popular and prominent young business men, a member of the firm of Ahrens Bros., the well known wholesale druggists.

The McEachern home was most attractively decorated, the color scheme of yellow and white being admirably carried out. Flowers and evergreens and other decoratives were used most effectively. Promptly at the appointed hour the wedding march skillfully played by Mrs. ... L. Chasten, heralded the approach of the wedding party, who came down the stairway and took their places in the reception hall, where the impressive ceremoy was performed by Rev. Dr. A. D. McClure, pastor of St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church. The bride was beautiful in her blue traveling suit with hat and gloves to match. She carried a lovely bouquet of Bride's roses. Her only ornament was a pearl and diamond brooch, the gift of the groom. The bride was attended by her maid of honor, Miss Fannie Holden, who was charmingly attired in lace trimmed chiffon, over yellow, and carried a bouquet of white chrysanthemums tied with white tulle. The bridesmaids, Misses Mabel McEachern, Mary Lawther and Clara Solomon were handsomely attired in lace trimmed chiffon, over white, and carried yellow chrysanthemums tied with yellow tulle. The groom had as his best man his brother, Mr. Eduard Ahrens, and the groomsmen were Messrs. Charles Southerland, Duncan Bornemann and John Oldenbuttel.

After the vows had been spoken the wedding party, to the strains of the recessional marched to the parlor, where the bride and groom received the hearty felicitations and best wishes of a large number of friends and relatives who had assembled to witness the pretty ceremony fraught with so much interest for the young couple. After the service of dainty refreshments Mr. and Mrs. Ahrens drove to the union station whence they departed for a bridal tour of two weeks to points of interest in the North, embracing Washington, Philadelphia and New York and other places. Upon their return to Wilmington they will be at home to their friends at No. 620 Market street.

There were many beautiful and valuable wedding presents received and these were most tastefully displayed. The many presents attest the general high esteem and admiration in which Mr. Ahrens and his bride are held by a wide circle of friends. One of the most beautiful and highly appreciated gifts is a completely furnished residence, presented by the father and mother of the groom.

The bride is an accomplished young lady of much beauty and attractiveness and her sweet disposition has won for her the admiration of a wide circle of friends. Mr. Ahrens is a member of the firm of Ahrens Bros., the well known wholesale druggists, and is one of Wilmington's most progressive and prominent young business men. His many friends congratulate him upon winning the hand of one so fair and wish for him and his bride a long and happy wedded life.

LOCAL DOTS.

—The German steamer Bradford, Capt. Oertel, arrived yesterday from Boston light to receive cargo of cotton from Messrs. Alexander Sprunt & Son.

—The police blotter shows that during the month of October there were 119 arrests. In September there were 107 arrests, an increase in October of 12.

—The meeting at the A. C. L. shops today at 12:20 o'clock will be addressed by Rev. W. E. Cox, rector of St. John's Episcopal Church. The public is invited to attend.

—Mr. William Crownstream who has a large place on the A. & Y. about 10 1-2 miles from Wilmington, stated last night that he had at last got the A. C. L. to establish a flag station on his place. The station was used for the first time last Sunday and will prove a great convenience for people residing in that section.

—By deed filed for record yesterday the Wilmington Savings & Trust Co., transfers to D. R. Foster, for $6,666, lot on the south side of Princess, 136 1-3 feet east of Front street, being 16 feet seven inches by 99 feet in size. The property adjoins that upon which the bank is now arranging to erect a handsome nome. It is understood that Mr. Foster will erect on his property a handsome building for his real estate business.

—Constable Savage yesterday morning arrested Denvil Pedrick, a 15-year-old white youth, on the charge of assault with deadly weapon on Willie Dew, also a white youth, alleged to have occurred at Delgado Monday. It is charged that Pedrick drew a shot gun on Dew. The defendant was recognized for his appearance at trial before Justice Harriss tomorrow morning.

—Chairman Louis Beldon, Messrs. Geo. Heyer, W. L. Parsley and R. H. Brady, of the Street Commission, and City Engineer Humphreys went to Nafcomber's ditch yesterday afternoon and looked over the proposed improvement and the commissioners had the plans explained to them in detail by the city engineer. They will now be in better position to take action on the proposition to improve the ditch, which has been hanging fire for some time.

PERSONAL PARAGRAPHS.

—Mr. Clarence Browne, of Richmond, is spending a few days in the city with relatives and friends.

—The many friends of Mr. Frank P. Donlan were pleased to welcome him home yesterday after several months spent in Waynesville and Asheville, N. C. Friends will be glad to know that his health is much improved.

GODWIN-MEARES DEBATE.

Joint Debate Closed at Southport Yesterday Afternoon.

Having been delayed by the necessity of transferring from the steamer to gasoline boats at Orton, down the river, yesterday morning, Messrs Meares and Godwin were not able to meet their appointment for a joint canvass at Southport until 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon, closing the list of appointments on the joint canvass of the district. Telephone messages from Southport last evening say that the crowd was small and that the speeches were about the same as delivered at Wilmington; that Mr. Godwin well sustained his reputation in debate with Mr. Meares, who is accredited one of the leaders on the stump in the State and that a good impression was made upon all who heard him. The party returned to the city last night. Mr. Meares was accompanied by several of his party leaders from this city, including Messrs. Thos. E. Wallace and "Sheriff" E. H. Freeman.

FOR ILLICIT DISTILLING.

Frank Sanders Brought to Newbern. Later Jumped $1,000 Bond.

(Special Star Telegram.)

Newbern, N. C., Nov. 1.—Last Monday morning Frank Sanders, of Newport, N. C., was brought to this city in the custody of an officer to stand trial in Federal court for illicit distilling. His case could not be called at once and in order that he might return to his home until the time the case was to be heard, he secured Mr. Kit Jones, of Beaufort, N. C., to stand his bond to the sum of $1,000 yesterday morning. His case was called, but Sanders failed to respond and after diligent search in this city and inquiries at his home town it was ascertained that he had left for parts unknown. Leaving his bondsmen to make his departure satisfactory with the court. Sander's brother was tried for his life several months ago in Carteret county for the alleged murder of Mr. I. Z. Newberry, who was at that time Mayor of Newport, but the jury returned a verdict of not guilty and he was released. The entire family, however, bear a very unsavory reputation in that section and every effort will be made to apprehend the fugitive.

Theatrical

In the company appearing in Frederic Thompson's "Polly of the Circus" with pretty Georgia Olp in the title role, which comes to the Academy tonight, are, in addition to a score or more of well known actors, a number of circus people and circus acts which contribute not a little to the success of the play.

The big third act sawdust scene represents a three ring circus in actual operation—one of the most realistic stage pictures ever shown on a stage of a theatre. Among the many features of "Polly of the Circus" is a trained horse called "Bingo", a thoroughbred Arabian animal that was brought to this country by Barnum & Bailey's circus and afterwards sold to the New York Hippodrome when Frederic Thompson was the managing director. During the Summer months Bingo is one of the features of that amusement place, Luna Park, Coney Island, New York City. Miss Olp and Bingo are great friends. That little actress says that her horse "can do almost anything but talk." With Bingo are a number of other animals and a trained elephant, "Little Hip," that is the wonder of the age, and which, like Bingo, was brought to this country by the management, at a great expense. For "Polly of the Circus" also the Barlow Pony Circus is one of the features, with clowns, acrobats, bareback riders and ringmasters. Miss Effie Dutton, the greatest bareback rider in the world, does stunts from the back of a horse that are unheard of, and to think of it, all on the stage of a theatre.

Seats are now on sale at Plummer's.

At the Crystal.

The Texas Quartette continues to make a great hit with the audiences at the Crystal Palace. They lead the fine bill at that popular amusement retreat this week and many have pronounced the bill the best yet given at the Crystal. In addition to the quartette there are other features and two reels of motion pictures.

At the Bijou Today.

"How She Won Him." "He Met the Champion," and "Whist" are the titles of the pictures that will be shown today at the Bijou theatre. The first named is a love story wherein the lovers prove themselves to be a real man and a real woman with a love for each other that endures; the second and third are splendid comedies.

At Joyland.

A "swell" programme is offered at Joyland today and the patrons of the resort will be pleased with the pictures that will be presented. "Within an Inch of His Life," is a feature drama, and "The Slumber' is a comedy that canot fail to please.

Teheran, Nov. 1.—The Jewish quarters in Shiraz, the capital of the Province of Fars, has been sacked by Khasgais. Eleven Jews were killed and 5,000 are destitute.

Savannah, Ga., Oct. 1.—Three men were injured today when a touring car running 60 miles an hour on the Grand Prize race course, skidded on a turn and struck a tree. The injured will recover.

THE MEMBERSHIP CAMPAIGN.

The Several Men Who Pledged Services Requested to Meet Today.

The memoership campaign of the Y. M. C. A. is now in dead earnest and the indications are that the goal of 700 members will have been reached by Friday evening. A large number of new members were received yesterday. Those who pledged their services in the campaign at the supper Monday evening are requested to meet at the rooms of the association this morning between 9 and 10 o clock. The standing of the several teams contesting for first place are: The D. G. Worth Bible Class, 130 points; Busy Men's, 117 points; Dormitory, 110 points, and Juniors, 52 points.

KITCHIN AT WHITEVILLE.

Governor Makes Great Speech to Co-Columbus County Audience.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Whiteville, N. C., Nov. 1.—Governor Kitchin arrived in Whiteville on the noon train and received a royal reception. He made a great speech, the court room being packed with voters and ladies. The High School suspended that the pupils might hear and meet the Governor. After the speaking a reception was held and for some time the Governor was kept busy shaking hands with his constituents, including the ladies. The Vineland band was on hand to furnish music. Gov. Kitchin was introduced by Hon. L. V. Grady in a few beautiful words, in which he said our State's prosperity was 100 per cent. above par under Governor Kitchin's administration.

Never was a finer address delivered in the county, or one more attentively listened to. The Governor was at his best, and kept his audience convulsed with laughter by the appropriate anecdotes which interspersed his address. It is impossible in a synopsis to do even partial justice to that speech. It did the cause of Democracy great good. He handled the Republicans without gloves, but in such a nice manner as not to give offense. In speaking of the wonderful progress made by the State under Democratic administration, as compared with Republican rule, he spoke of the penitentiary. The Governor said that if any one institution the Republicans ought to understand, it was the penitentiary; but they were entitled to a fair share of the praise for the financial success of the institution had attained, for while the Democrats furnished the brains to run it the Republicans largely supplied the labor. He told about how the Republicans could not find competent men to nominate for Congress and had to bribe former Democrats with empty honors. He showed up Marion Butler and the villainy of the fraudulent bond matter. He gave one of the most lucid explanations of the iniquitous tariff we ever listened to, and his words were so simple, and language so plain, that the dullest mind could understand.

Gov. Kitchin left this evening for Elizabethtown, where he speaks tomorrow. From his arrival in Whiteville until he left, the Governor was surrounded by admirers. He was always strong in Columbus county, but his speech today anchored him in the esteem of the people. Several Republicans were in the court room, and they laughed as heartily as the Democrats over the salient witticisms at the expense of their party.

Facts For Sick Women

We know of no other medicine which has been so successful in relieving the suffering of women, or secured so many genuine testimonials, as has Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

In almost every community you will find women who have been restored to health by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. Almost every woman you meet has either been benefited by it, or knows some one who has.

In the Pinkham Laboratory at Lynn, Mass., are files containing over one million one hundred thousand letters from women seeking health, in which many openly state over their own signatures that they have regained their health by taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is made exclusively from roots and herbs, and is perfectly harmless.

The reason why it is so successful is because it contains ingredients which act directly upon the female organism, restoring it to healthy and normal activity.

Thousands of unsolicited and genuine testimonials such as the following prove the efficiency of this simple remedy.

Minneapolis, Minn.:—"I was a great sufferer from female troubles which caused a weakness and broken down condition of the system. I read so much of what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound had done for other suffering women, I felt sure it would help me, and I must say it did help me wonderfully. Within three months I was a perfectly well woman.

"I want this letter made public to show the benefits to be derived from Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound."—Mrs. John G. Moldan, 2115 Second St., North Minneapolis, Minn.

Women who are suffering from those distressing ills peculiar to their sex should not lose sight of these facts or doubt the ability of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to restore their health.

TRUSTEE'S SALE OF VALUABLE MILL SITE AND MACHINERY.

By virtue of a decree of the District Court of the United States, for the Eastern District of North Carolina, made in a cause therein pending, entitled "In re Angola Lumber Company, Bankrupt," the undersigned will sell, to the highest bidder, at public auction, for cash, on Monday the 28th day of November, 1910, at twelve o'clock M., at the Court House door of the County of New Hanover in the City of Wilmington, N. C., the following described land and premises, situate in the County of New Hanover, State of North Carolina, adjoining the Northern boundary limits of the City of Wilmington, beginning at an iron post in the northern line of the right of way of the Wilmington & Weldon and Wilmington, Columbia & August Railroads (now Atlantic Coast Line Railroad) and the Charlotte & Rutherfordton (now the Seaboard Air Line) Railroads, the said right of ways described in a deed from G. W. Griffin to the said Railroads, dated October 2nd, 1872, and recorded in the Register's office of New Hanover county in Book O. O. G. Page 21, said iron post standing at the southwest corner of a tract of land conveyed by the Peregoy Lumber Company to the Carolina Central Railroad, deed dated the 12th day of March, 1894, and recorded in the Register's office of New Hanover County in Book No. 13, page 547, and running from said iron post North 30 degrees 45 minutes East, to Smith's Creek; thence in a general northwardly direction with the various courses of said Creek to the junction of said Creek with the northeast branch of the Cape Fear River; thence southwardly with the various courses of said river, along its eastern bank, to the point where the northern line of said right of way touches the said river; thence eastwardly along said northern line to the beginning; being all that tract of land which was conveyed to the Angola Lumber Company by Josephine L. Stewart by deed duly registered in said county, containing about thirty-eight acres.

Also one thoroughly modern and equipped double band saw mill, capacity, 80,000 feet per day, with 10 dry kilns and complete power plant, and all tools and appliances connected therewith. Also a planing mill, full equipped with driving engine, planers, re-saw, edgers, blower system, lumber buggies and all tools and appliances connected therewith.

The said property is to be sold in the following manner as authorized by the decree of the said District Court:—

First: There will be sold the saw mill, machinery, tools and appliances separate from the site.

Second: The planing mill with its appliances and appurtenances separate from the site and separate from the saw mill.

Third: The saw mill, planing mill, machinery, tools and appliances and the site on which the same are situate as a whole.

THE COTTON MARKET RALLIED

Lost Good Part of Yesterday's Advance in Early Trading—Continued Reports of Damage—Reports From South.

New York, Nov. 1.—After losing a good part of yesterday's advance the cotton market rallied in the late trading on a renewal of bull support and covering with the close very steady at a net decline of 11 points on November, but only 1 to 4 points on later months.

The market opened steady, but at a decline of 4 to 7 points owing to relatively easy cables and private advices from Liverpool to the effect that the South was offering spots more freely and that Manchester was selling. There were continued reports of damage from the over-Sunday freeze, and frost but many of yesterday's buyers seemed to be selling on the show of the English market, and prices gradually eased off until the market showed a net loss of about 16 to 19 points on active months. At this level leading Southern operators appeared to be buying and in the late trading there was a covering movement on which the active months rallied to almost the closing prices of last night. The decline during the middle of the day may have been encouraged by reports that a New Orleans authority estimated the crop at 12,900,000 bales, the largest crop figures so far published while there was also a feeling that a report compiled by a local trade paper indicated a condition toward the end of October 10 per cent. better than last year, was a point in favor of the larger estimtes of the held. On the other hand private reports that from 70 to 73 per cent. of the crop had been picked against 75 per cent. last year, tending to revive the bullish construction of the recent ginning report and the rally here in the late trading was accompanied by rumors that preliminary figures received by the National Ginning Association indicated a giuning to November 1st of but little if advance of last year's official figures. The census report, giving the amount of cotton ginned to November 1st will be issued at the opening of the market on Wednesday, November 9th.

Southern spot markets officially reported were unchanged to 1-16c lower.

Receipts of cotton at the ports today 83,442 bales against 98,343 last week and 75,651 last year; for the week 400,000 bales against 391,188 last week and 402,640 last year. Today's receipts at New Orleans 4,217 bales against 12,363 last year.

Spot closed quiet and unchanged; middling uplands 14.55; middling gulf 14.80; sales 4,253 bales. Futures opened steady and closed very steady.

SLUMP IN STOCK DEALINGS

Total Abandonment of Operations on Market Yesterday—Striking Shrinkage in Volume of Transactions.

New York, Nov. 1.—The stock market today reflected an almost total abandonment of the operations which have kept up an appearance of animation for some time and which have been attributed commonly to powerful private banking interests.

There was a striking shrinkage in the total volume of the transactions, but what was most remarkable was the heavy decline in the proportion of the dealings in United States Steel to even that diminished volume. Compared with a share equal to one-third of the total yesterday and for several days last week, United States Steel account for barely one-sixth of the dealings today. The attitude toward the market seemed to be confined to protection against bear attacks. Supporting orders were encountered on the morning decline and a rally ensued. Fractional gains were retained at the close, but the tone was irregular. A factor in the intense dullness and neglect of the dealings was the holiday in foreign markets, the London and Paris stock exchanges being both closed on account of All Saints' Day, according to custom. The determination to await the outcome of the election before further market commitment alo played a part in the retraint of the peculation.

Cleveland, Cincinnati, Chicago & St. Louis stock was made the object of an unpleasant demonstration of the thinness of the market and of the indifference of the dealings. An order to execute a single 100 share lot of this stock found the market bare of bids above 61, although sales were made yesterday at 71 and the bid at the closing last night was 69. The 100 shares were sold therefore at 61. Within half an hour after another 100 shares were bought at 69 and there were sales late at 70. The incident was regarded as implying unreliable market conditions and a position vulnerable to artificial influences. Carelessness in the execution of an order was claimed for the erratic course of the stock rather than any development bearing on value. A rise in the price of copper in London, an increase in October exports of the metal and a decrease in the European visible supply in the two weeks to November 1, were instrumental in raising the price of the copper industrials. Published statements by officials of copper companies alleging favorable trade conditions also had some influence. There was a rise in the call money rate to 4 1-4 per cent., the highest for the Fall season. The progress of the November money settlements was held responsible. The aggressive advance in Canadian Pacific to a record price at 2.02 1-2 was a sustaining influence on the general list.

Bonds were steady. Total sales par value $1,994,000. United States bonds were unchanged on call. Total sales of stocks today were 279,400 shares.

COTTON MARKET SLUGGISH.

Marked by Light Trade Yesterday—Liverpool Advices Poor.

(Special Star Telegram.)

New York, Nov. 1.—Liverpool advices were poor but the Manchester tone was reported better. The market here has been sluggish with light trading on a downward tendency. The bull traders left the local interest to deal with prices and until the late afternoon the feeling was decidedly bearish. Part of the decline was then recovered. Business was curtailed by the holiday in New Orleans. The Journal of Commerce says the crop is ten per cent. better than last year; the New Orleans Picayune refers to bearish possibilities. Southern spot markets are generally steady. An estimate from Yazoo City makes the crop 12,900,000, but is ignored by the trade and speculation hesitates until home renewal of acivity possibly deferred until after the coming election. Mild weather prevails in the South, but climate conditions are now an unconsidered factor, the trade waiting further information of the late frost. Interior receipts half week 128,000 bales against 142,000 last year. Shipments 91,0000 interpreted as poor demand.

Saves an Iowa Man's Life.

The very grave seemed to yawn before Robert Madsen, of West Burlington, Iowa, when, after seven weeks in the hospital, four of the best physicians gave him up. Then was shown the marvelous curative power of Electric Bitters. For, after eight months of frightful suffering from liver trouble and yellow jaundice, getting no help from other remedies or doctors, five bottles of this matchless medicine completely cured him. It's positively guaranteed for stomach, liver or kidney troubles and never disappoints. Only 50c at Robert R. Bellamy's.

of the Republican party in North Carolina would endanger the constitutional amendment. He charged the Republicans with inconsistency in saying that they were satisfied with the elimination of the negro from politics. There was no danger to the constitutional amendment either from Congress or the Supreme Court of the United States, but he did conceive that there was danger from an election of three members of the Supreme Court in the State (Republicans) who had privately at the time expressed opinions hostile to the constitutionality of the franchise measure. Then there was danger in the election of a Republican Legislature and the turning over of the election machinery to the Republicans, the registrars of which party could very easily admit the negro to franchise again.

The third special danger in the ascendancy of the Republican party in the State, the speaker conceived, was to the business development of the State which has been marvellous under Democratic administration of affairs. Everybody without regard to party affiliation felt safer as to investments in Southern States if the affairs of those States were administered by Democrats rather than by Republicans with their records of the past. This is especially true of North Carolina, he said, in view of the character of government given by the two parties in the past.

Mr. Simmons next launched into a scathing denunciation of Republicanism in the State and taking up Nation issues charged rank extravagance and waste of money by the National government, showed the trend of the party in control, under a protective tariff system, to expenditures without regard to the needs of the government. The country was astounded a few years ago by a billion dollar Congress; now it has been doubled and still there is no surplus. Millions and millions are being spent on the Army and Navy, while the Republicans haggle over a paltry 15 million for the great agricultural interests, a trifling sum in comparison for the extension of the rural delivery and for rivers and harbors and the internal improvements of the South, which are so greatly needed. Under a system of tariff for revenue only, these improvements could be taken care of and the people could be given a square deal on the robber protective tariff system. These were the lines of cleavage between the two great parties and a choice should not be difficult. President Taft is spending twice as much in running the government as Grover Cleveland, while the latter had a surplus in the treasury while now surpluses are mere memories of the past. The tax now amounted to $70 upon every head of a household in these United States and the worst of it, this tax is being levied not upon the rich and powerful, but upon the poor. The burden was upon the stomachs and backs of the poor. He told briefly of the working of the tariff and told how it taxed Lazarus a little bit higher than it did Dives. He regretted that Lincoln had not lived to the full term of his usefulness in the White House. Had he liver, the speaker believed, the South would have been saved the horrors of reconstruction and this same feeling was shared as to the lamented McKinley, for he believed that had Mr. McKinley lived, he would have carried out some of the reciprocity agreements that would have given the people relief from the iniquitous Dingley bill. Under a protection standard the tariff has become the incubator of trusts and monopoly. The people were rising up against the Aldrich bill and it is manifesting itself even in the Republican party, the insurgent movement all over the country being detailed to show what the people think of the latest effort at revision.

He showed that the late panic was a creature of a Republican financial system and showed now, when the people called on the dominant party for relief, from the domination of the trusts, they were given a slap in the face and a stiletto in the back. Mr. Simmons denounced the Payne-Aldrich bill as a base betrayal and a plunderer of the people. What made it worse, every Republican candidate for Congress in the State was standing squarely by the administration and the present tariff bill.

The relief from the domination of trusts, Mr. Simmons said, was clearly one of legislation through Congress. The Congresses had created these monopolies and it could just as effectively destroy them by legislation. But the party in power now, could never be trusted to destroy this monopoly, for the reason that it had created them by its tariff system and the trusts and monopolies are in control at Washington. The only salvation was in the Democratic party, which, given control of Congress, could go after the trusts and monopolies without the fear of putting some of its own children in the penitentiary.

Mr. Simmons again took up State issues. The quandary of the Republicans seemed to be as to whom they should give their allegiance. He then referred to the two wings of the party in the State and in the Nation. The Republicans in the Nation could not tell whether the capitol was at Washington or at Sagamore Hill. Coming again to Mr. Marion Butler, the Senator handled this gentleman with gloves off. Butler, he showed, was not only a traitor to his State, but to every person or cause with which he had been identified when it came to Butler's interest to be a traitor. He condemned Butler out of Republican mouths and finally wound up by saying that Butler had betrayed his State for 30 pieces of silver and then didn't have the decency to go out and hang himself. He explained why it was not necessary to go on the stump and meet a traitor and said that if Judas Iscariot were to come in and want to argue the question of his being a traitor, there would be no discussion.

In paying his respects to Butler, Mr. Simmons said that Mr. Meares, candidate for Congress in the Sixth District, had not been a Republican long enough to know Butler. He had worn a red shirt so recently that Butler would not let him get close enough to him to find him out, but once Meares did get the scent of Butler, he would set the Court House on fire denouncing him. These remarks provoked great laughter at the expense of the New Hanover Republicans and when Mr. Simmons said that Mr. Meares' Republicanism was of so recent origin that he had only reached the toe-kissing stage, the house went wild.

The Republican party since the Democrats had rid them of the "nigger," is laying claim to respectability, Mr. Simmons said, but since they were buried so deep in the City of Perdition in 1900, the up-hill road back to the City of Respectability is so difficult and so much time is spent under present leaders in foraging, that he feared they would never reach the goal.

Mr. Simmons closed with an appeal to Democratic insurgents to join the only party of hope; he appealed to Democrats not to let their sense of security at home prevent them from doing their duty to the great State on election day. There was where the danger lay, he thought. Democrats should rally to the party of their fathers and forever blot out the claim of Republican gains by the stay-at-home vote of the Democratic party. He sat down with round after round of applause, his speech being greatly enjoyed by everyone present. Hundreds of Democrats went forward to pay their respects to the Senator after the speaking, while a number of others were entertained after the speaking in compliment to Mr. Simmons at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ricaud.

Young Men Rally.

The organization of the Young Men's Democratic Club immediately followed the speaking. Woodus Kellum, Esq., Democratic nominee for the Legislature, who has been appointed by the State chairman to have charge of this work in New Hanover, made a brief talk explaining the nature of the movement and calling for volunteers. A large number of young men readily responded and signed the roll of membership, after which the meeting was called to order for organization. Woodus Kellum, Esq., was unanimously elected president; Messrs. R. T. Sinclair and D. P. Satchwell, vice presidents; Mr. James H. Cowan, secretary, and J. E. Thompson treasurer. After discussing generally plans for interesting the young men in the affairs of the party and all pledging their active support to the Democratic ticket, an adjournment was taken, subject to call of the chairman.

Commissioner of Agriculture W. A. Graham, says it is impossible just now to form any accurate estimate of the North Carolina cotton crop. He believes the plants very generaly matured before the frost caught them a few lieves the plans very generally maturquarters that the unusually large amount of nitrate of soda used in cotton fertilization caused the plants to grow considerably later than would otherwise have been the case, thereby delaying maturity of the top bolls. It is the general belief that North Carolina has a cotton crop well up to the average.

TO URGE SUNDAY LAWS.

North Carolina Lord's Day Alliance Held Meeting in Raleigh.

(Special Star Telegram.)

Raleigh, N. C., Nov. 1.—Tonight the North Carolina Lord's Day Alliance adopted resolutions directing its Legislative Committee to urge upon the approaching General Assembly the enactment of more comprehensive and effective Sunday laws; calling on ministers to deliver at least one sermon each year on Sabbath observance; urging ministeral associations to procure the enactment and enforcement of adequate Sunday ordinances in their respective towns and declaring the Sabbath divinely established for the physical and spiritual and more well being of the people.

Old officers of the Alliance were re-elected except Rev. L. F. Johnson, Raleigh, who was elected corresponding secretary instead of Rev. Jas. O. Helsabeck, of Asheville. They include Dr. R. F. Campbell, of Asheville; Rev. W. H. McMasters, of Raleigh, field secretary.

Dr. D. Clay Lilly, of Richmond, discussing "Sabbath and the Forward Movement," took the ground that the State must care for morals of people and for environment under which people live and rear their families. Therefore, the State must guard the Sabbath against desecretion. The Church must form public opinion and influence the State for safeguarding the Sabbath.

DEMOCRATS OF CROSS CREEK.

Nominated Candidates for Magistrate —Resolutions Adopted.

(Special Star Telegram.)

Fayetteville, N. C., Nov. 1.—In convention here tonight the Democrats of Cross Creek township nominated the following candidates: For Magistrate, T. J. Powers, C. P. Overby, Colen McRae, P. B. McMillan, Frank Glover, W. D. Glaster, W. A. Brown, W. H. Cook; for Township Constable, A. J. Pate.

The following resolutions were unanimously adopted: We the Democrats of Cross Creek Township in convention assembled believing it to be true and Democratic policy to elect all officers, State county and township by vote of the people ,do hereby most earnestly request our senators and representatives not to appoint any magistrates for Cross Creek township, but to leave all such offices to be filled by the qualified voters of said township.

SOUTH CAROLINA CONCERN.

Cotton Mill Company Re-Organized at Spartanburg Yesterday.

Spartanburg, S. C., Nov. 1.—At a meeting held at the offices here of the defunct Fingerville Manufacturing Company, the company was reorganized as the Cohannet Cotton Mills with the following officers:

President, John J. Mitcherr, Jr., of Boston; treasurer, Craig S. Mitchell, Philadelphia; secretary and general manager, B. M. Aull, of Pendleton, S. C.

The officers were also named as the directors. The capital stock of the company was fixed at $100,000, all of which has been paid in.

The Fingerville mills were forced into the hands of a receiver some time ago, owing, it is alleged, to a tight money market. They were sold last May to the Mitchells, who were the principal creditors for about $40,000.
